

Module 3: Generative Models with Other Statistical Distance

Integral Probability Metric-based Approaches: Understand how integral probability metrics quantify the differences between two distributions.

Wasserstein Distance-based Approaches: Understand how Wasserstein distances quantify the differences between two distributions.

Score-based Approaches: Understand how Fisher divergences quantify the differences between two distributions.